

Jessica Good

Owner of Harvard Square's Passport Boutique,
43 Brattle St., Cambridge, 617-576-0900, passportboutique.com.

A flight ticket to Vegas to visit friends, and a transparent travel case so finding aspirin in the morning is easy.

{ LUG Clearview Envelopes, $20, Passport Boutique }

FOR My hardworking husband.

WHY He desperately needs (and deserves) a getaway.

A School-in-a-Box-Kit donation to UNICEF

{ $186, inspiredgifts.unicefusa.org }

FOR My mom. WHY She's a true do-gooder, and this should make thinking of others in need even easier for her.

Eight Thomas Paul Sea Life Melamine

Dinner Plates { $72, at Grand, 374 Somerville Ave., Somerville, 617-623-2429, grandthestore.com }

FOR My sister. WHY She's a marine biologist, and always throws the most amazing dinner parties at her seaside home.

A membership to the New England Historic Genealogy Society { $75, newenglandancestors.org }

FOR My grandmother. WHY She adores history – especially as it surrounds her family.

White and Warren Travel Wrap { $275, Passport }

FOR For my jet-setting friend.

WHY She'll soon be off for a holiday in Dubai and The Maldives. This perfectly soft and colorful cashmere wrap will brighten up a black dress and keep her warm on the long plane ride.

A Gogovoyage Rolling Buyer Bag

{ $410, Passport } FOR My best friend, who travels constantly for work.

WHY She needs a bag that's functional but looks as fabulous as she does.

Bloch Office roll-up shoes { $100, Passport }

FOR For my globe-trotting cousin.

WHY She can wear these roll-up flats anywhere from Beijing to Buenos Aires, and they won't take up any space in her carry-on.

A cushion-cut aquamarine and diamond ring { $1,825, The Ruby Door, 15 Charles St., Boston, 617-720-2001, therubydoor.com }

FOR Myself.

WHY You can never have enough cocktail rings; they dress up any outfit in literally a flash.

Red velvet cupcakes

{ $3.25 each, Sweet Boston, 49 Massachusetts Ave., Boston, 617-247-2253, sweetcupcakes.com }

FOR My neighbors who just moved to Boston from North Carolina.

WHY It's something to remind them of home. (And for their pooches, Sweet will also make some "pup cakes" to throw in.)

A day of dogsledding in Vermont

{ $450, at Eden Dog Sledding, <http://edendogsledding.com> }

FOR My snow-loving dad.

WHY It's just his speed: a mini-adventure, but an adventure nonetheless.

The Gurgling Cod Pitcher

{ $95, Shreve, Crump & Low, 440 Boylston St., Boston, 617-267-9100 }

FOR My relatives who just moved back to Massachusetts.

WHY I can never give enough of these. Especially to anyone who needs reminding of the great Boston traditions.
